of the prisoners in jail reminds the passers-by that court is drawing near.

—Rev. S. C. Byrd and Mr.
W. A. Beatty are attending the session of Bethel presbytery at the choir of the A. R. P. church Thursday (to-morrow) afternoon at 5:30 at the church. All members are requested to be present.

—That little want ad of Mr.
C. H. Douglass in the News and Herald of last week for a man to take charge of a saw mill did the work. The moral is self-evident.

—Mr. W. D. Tennant left Sunday night for Charleston, where he goes to enter the mail service for a short while, and if he is pleased, will continue

—Mr. J. H. Skinnar, the hustling bill-poster, is having built a very large bill-board on the lot adjoining the store of the Ketchin Mercantile company, which makes quite an improvement in the appearance of the same.

—There is nothing that will give that boy or girl off at college more satisfaction than a weekly letter from home. A fine supplement to the weekly letters from members of the family will be the News and Herald, which will be like a letter from home every time it goes. Hand us seventy-five cents so that your boy or girl may have the pleasure of its weekly visits for this whole college year.

—Mr and Mrs. G. W. Abbott have the sympathy of many friends in the death of their infant son, Francis Leonard, Thursday night. Its remains were interred in the Presbyterian cemetery Friday afternoon.

—Mr. Robert F. Gooding left Friday evening for Pittsburg, where he has accepted a position as draughtsman in the Westinghouse Electric Works. Bob made a fine record at Clemson and his friends predict for him a successful career.

—In noting that Mr. G. W.
Brooks was in town last week, we stated that he is now living in Florida. Mr. Brooks informs us that this is an error, as he still holds his citizenship in this State, he having been to Florida only on a visit.

—The services at the Baptist church the past week were well attended. The preaching of Rev.
Jabez Ferris was greatly enjoyed by all. Mr. Ferris remained over Sunday, his appointment at Batesburg for that day being filled by Rev. J. L. Freeman.

—Miss Emelyn Craig stopped over with her friend Miss Bessie McMaster, Friday on her way home from a visit to her brother at Marion. Miss Craig came home in the early summer to recuperate.
She is now so much recovered that she will return to her work as a missionary in Cuba at an early day.

—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that the fall teacher's examination will be held in the court house Friday, September 15. All who expect to teach and have yet not secured their certificates or any teacher who has not had her certificate renewed should not fail to stand this examination, as there will be no other examinations till next May.

Preaching at Brick Church.

Rev. Neill E. Pressly, D. D., returned Missionary from Mexico, will preach at Brick Church next Sabbath morning, Sept. 17th.
The public is cordially invited to the services.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to return my sincere thanks to the members of the fire company for their valuable services in the fire of Tuesday morning.

J. O. Boag.

No Need to Order.

D. V. Walker & Co. now have a very ingenious case for the display of carpet samples. There are fifty of these samples in this case, all one yard long, sewed together and brought rapidly before the eye by the turning of a crank. Those contemplating buying carpets will find it to their interest to examine these samples before buying.

Millinery Opening.

Our milliner, Miss Nettie Sitgreaves, is just back from the northern markets, where she bought very largely for our Millinery Department. These goods are now coming in daily and next week there will be on exhibition an unusually fine display of Pattern and Ready-to-wear hats.
Our Fall Opening will begin Wednesday, September 20, and continue through the rest of the week. You are cordially invited to attend this opening, where a most hearty welcome awaits you D. V. Walker & Co.

Three Cottages Burned.

At an early hour yesterday morning three of the cottages of Mr. J. O. Boag's near the railroad, were totally destroyed by fire. The fire originated in the first of these cottages, which was occupied by Mrs. Mattie Jackson, but little of whose furniture was saved. She carried $800 insurance. The other two cottages were occupied respectively by Mr.
J. A. McGarity and Mrs. Hollis, all of whose furniture was saved.
Mr. Boag carried $1,350 insurance on the three cottages, which was but little more than half their value.

Fairfield Cotton Association.

In accordance with a call by the president of the South Carolina Cotton Association that all the county associations hold a meeting at their respective places of meeting on September 18th, a call is hereby issued for a meeting of the Fairfield Cotton Association at the town hall in Winns-boro Monday, September 18th, at 12 o'clock. A full attendance of representatives from the township associations and of farmers interested in this movement is greatly desired.

S. C. Cathcart,
President.

J. Frank Foose, Secretary.

Used for Pneumonia.

Dr. J. C. Bishop, of Agnew, Mich., says: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case."

ter Co.

Death of Miss Margaret Blaine.

After an illness of several months, Miss Margaret R. Blaine quietly passed away Sunday night.
Miss Blaine was in her 72nd year. She taught school for many years, first a private school and later for several years in Mt.
Zion.

Miss Blaine is survived by the following relatives: one brother, James M. Blaine, of Blackstock, and four sisters, Mrs. Sara Cathcart, Winnsboro, with whom she made her home; Mrs. N. J. Mc-Caw, Finis, Tex.; Mrs. Naomi Alberson and Mrs. Emma Morton, Homassassa, Fla.

The following of her old pupils acted as pall-bearers: H. S. Wylie, John H. Cathcart, W. M. Cathcart, John H. McMaster, E. P.
Matthews and W. R. Elliott.

The funeral services were held in the A. R. P. church Monday afternoon by her pastor, Rev.
C. E. McDonald, and the interment was at the A. R. P. cemetery.

Changes at Mt. Zion.

At a meeting of the trustees of school district 14 Monday afternoon, the resignations of Misses Eunice Bacot and Annie Davis were tendered and accepted with great reluctance on the part of the board.

Miss Bacot was in charge of the third and fourth grades and was very popular with her pupils and the patrons of the school.
She was a most indefatigable worker and of more than ordinary professional interest, which characteristics accounted for her great success in her work.

Miss Davis went to her work with the very highest preparation and in the two years that she was in Mt. Zion made a most enviable reputation for the high character of her work and for the fine control she had over her pupils.

Mt. Zion and the teaching profession sustain a decided loss in these two teachers.

The vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Bacot has been filled by the election of Miss Marie McCants, who is a graduate of the College for Women of Columbia, and who taught a private school in town the past year most acceptably to her pupils and patrons. Her friends feel fully confident of her success in her new position.

The vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Davis has not yet been filled. For the present the work in the high school will be carried on by a rearrangement of the work among the present teachers thereof.

With Our Advertisers.

The merchants of Winnsboro have been very busy the past few days, opening their new goods and getting everything in good shape for the fall trade. They have not only gotten the goods, but they are telling about their latest arrivals in this issue of The News and Herald, making the advertising columns a very newswy feature. Nearly every advertisement has been changed—the changes being too many to call attention to them separately.
So the thing for you to do will be to read the paper through and through, advertising columns and all. The merchants of Winnsboro are in earnest about your trade; hence they are multiplying their invitations for you to come this way to do your trading.

Off to College.

Vacation days are now over and the boys and girls are now leaving for the various colleges and schools. Winnsboro as usual will furnish her full quota of students to the higher institutions of learning. It is doubtful, if there is any other town of the same size in the State that makes so good a showing in this respect.
What is said of Winnsboro in this particular can be said of the county as a whole, for the record that has always been made by Fairfield in matters educational has been an enviable one in the number attending college and in the stand made by these in their classes. These boys and girls will be missed in the community, to the social life of which they have added so much during the summer months. Those who go back and those who go off for the first time will all have the very best wishes of many friends here at home for their success in their work. We bid them all godspeed.

These have already gone: Messrs Tom and Gaillard Ellison and David Bryson to Clemson College, the former two being members of the senior class; Mr.

W. A. Elliott to Davidson; Misses Katherine and Margaret Flennin-ken and Mr. H. Pressly to Erskine, all three of whom will graduate next June; Miss Bessie Johnston to Statesville. There will be many others to go in the next few days.
